The United States Attorney charges:

INTRODUCTORY ALLEGATIONS

A. Defendant's Political & Business Activities

1. From in or about 2010 through the present, defendant IMAAD SHAH ZUBERI operated an informal entity named Avenue Ventures, a venture capital firm. As part of his operation of Avenue Ventures, defendant ZUBERI told foreign nationals, representatives of foreign governments, and others that he could implement changes to United

DOB

1 States foreign policy by wielding his influence in Washington, D.C.
2 Defendant ZUBERI typically advertised these political policy changes 3 as devices to construct profitable business and investment 4 opportunities for his clients as well as himself.

5 2. Defendant ZUBERI and Avenue Ventures obtained funds from 6 this business plan in multiple ways. Some of defendant ZUBERI's
7 clients agreed to pay him consulting or retainer fees. Other clients 8 agreed to transfer money to defendant ZUBERI to invest in specific 9 business ventures for the benefit of these clients. Other clients 10 agreed to transfer money to defendant ZUBERI to fund political 11 campaign contributions in an effort to create business opportunities 12 for themselves.

13 3. Defendant ZUBERI used a portion of these funds to donate 14 contributions to the political campaigns of federal and state 15 officials. Between on or about September 1, 2011 and on or about 16 February 24, 2017, the day when defendant ZUBERI became aware of the 17 U.S. Government's criminal investigation, defendant ZUBERI made over 18 $3,000,000 in contributions, in either his own name or that of his 19 spouse, to various Democratic and Republican federal election 20 campaigns, and Presidential Inauguration Committees. Between on or 21 about September 1, 2011 and on or about November 7, 2016, defendant 22 ZUBERI also "bundled" over a million dollars of contributions from 23 various third parties as a fundraiser for campaigns for Presidential 24 elections and several other candidates for elected office.

25 4. Through these political contributions, defendant ZUBERI
26 obtained access to high-level United States officials. Defendant 27 ZUBERI attempted to persuade these public officials to modify 28 existing United States policies and take other actions on behalf of,

1 and favorable to, defendant ZUBERI's clients. In an effort to 2 convince his clients of his ability to wield influence, defendant
3 ZUBERI broadcast this access by distributing photographs of defendant 4 ZUBERI meeting with high-ranking elected officials and describing 5 conversations in which they purportedly discussed public policies of 6 international importance.

7 5. Defendant ZUBERI used a portion of the funds from his 8 business plan to hire lobbyists and public relations consultants who 9 assisted his efforts to influence and transform public policy and 10 opinion in the United States.

11 6. Defendant ZUBERI's campaign contributions, public relations 12 work, and lobbying efforts generated marginal results. Some United 13 States officials, however, were willing to adopt defendant ZUBERI's 14 requested political positions or otherwise accommodate defendant 15 ZUBERI's wishes.

16 7. Defendant ZUBERI's business ventures were largely 17 unsuccessful for his clients. Indeed, most of defendant ZUBERI's 18 clients suffered significant monetary losses stemming from their 19 business associations with defendant ZUBERI. Many of the lobbyists, 20 public relations consultants, and other subcontractors also suffered 21 losses when defendant ZUBERI refused to pay them the agreed-upon fees 22 for services they rendered.

23 8. In contrast to the losses suffered by his clients and 24 subcontractors, defendant ZUBERI gained substantial wealth. This 25 newfound wealth was almost entirely obtained as a result of (a) 26 fraudulent representations concerning defendant ZUBERI's education, 27 experience, family wealth, business, employees, investment successes, 28 financial condition, political power, and the disposition of client

1 funds, and (b) the outright conversion of client money for defendant
2 ZUBERI's own personal benefit.

3 B. The Foreign Agents Registration Act

4 9. The Foreign Agents Registration Act ("FARA") was, and is, a 5 disclosure statute that requires any person acting as "an agent of a 6 foreign principal" to register with the Attorney General of the 7 United States in connection with certain types of activities, such as 8 political or public relations efforts on behalf of the foreign 9 principal. Such registrations are made to the U.S. Department of 10 Justice, National Security Division's FARA Unit. It is a crime to 11 knowingly and willfully fail to register, and to make false and 12 misleading statements or material omissions in documents submitted to 13 the FARA Unit under the law's provisions.

14 10. One purpose of FARA is to create transparency regarding the 15 existence and extent of the relationship between individuals 16 operating in the United States and their foreign principals. Proper 17 registration under the statute allows the U.S. government and the 18 American people to evaluate the statements and activities of 19 individuals who are serving as agents of foreign principals. Among 20 other things, a FARA registration reveals the identity of the foreign 21 principal on whose behalf a registrant performs services, the type of 22 services the registrant provides the foreign principal, the source 23 and amount of compensation the registrant receives from the foreign 24 principal, and political campaign contributions made by the 25 registrant while the registrant was acting as an agent of the foreign 26 principal. The Government of Sri Lanka, a country in South Asia, 27 was, and is, a foreign principal under FARA.

1 C. The Federal Election Campaign Act

2 11. The Federal Election Campaign Act ("FECA") governed, and 3 governs, contributions to candidates, their campaign committees, and 4 political committees in United States elections.

5 12. FECA requires that federal candidates for public office 6 designate a principal campaign committee to solicit, accept, and 7 receive contributions and to make expenditures for the campaign.
8 FECA also permits the establishment of other political committees, 9 such as national party committees, state party committees, and 10 political action committees, which can solicit, accept, and receive 11 contributions and make expenditures for candidates and political 12 parties.

13 13. FECA requires that each treasurer of a political committee 14 that participates in federal elections file periodic reports to the 15 Federal Election Commission ("FEC") identifying contributors by name, 16 address, and occupation, and the contributions provided by those 17 contributors by date and amount.

18 14. FECA prohibits:

19 a. Contributions from foreign nationals, meaning 20 individuals who are neither citizens of the United States nor 21 permanent residents of the United States, directly or through any 22 other person, in connection with any federal, state, or local 23 election or any presidential inaugural;

24 b. Contributions from foreign or domestic corporations, 25 partnerships, associations, or organizations in connection with any 26 federal election for federal office;

1 c. Conduit contributions, contributions in the name of 2 another, or using one name to effect a contribution by another in 3 connection with any federal election for federal office;

4 d. Contributions from any person (i) in excess of $2,500
5 during the 2012 election cycle, $2,600 during the 2014 election 6 cycle, and $2,700 during the 2016 election cycle to any candidate's 7 authorized political committee per federal election; (ii) in excess 8 of $30,800 during the 2012 election cycle, $32,400 during the 2014
9 election cycle, and $33,400 during the 2016 election cycle per year
10 to any national party committee; (iii) in excess of $10,000 per year 11 to any state, district, and local party committee, and (iv) in excess 12 of $5,000 per year to any other political committee.

25 Specially Designated Nationals. This designation prohibited United 26 States persons from engaging in business with, blocked the assets of,

28

17 behalf of defendant ZUBERI and Avenue Ventures. On or about July 14, 18 2014, at the direction of defendant ZUBERI, Person P obtained a 19 certificate of organization in Washington, D.C. designating WR Group 20 as a limited liability company ("WR, LLC").

21 28. On or about May 23, 2014, at the direction of defendant 22 ZUBERI, Person P incorporated Beltway Government Services, Inc.

25 and sole signatory.

26 29. Person Q was an associate of defendant ZUBERI. From July 27 2014 through September 2014, defendant ZUBERI directed Person P to 28 pay $2,500 per month out of the BGS accounts to the benefit of Person

Q in return for his agreement to act as a second signatory on the BGS accounts.

30. Throughout the existence of WR LLC and BGS, Person P nominally governed both entities but they were actually always subject to the control of defendant ZUBERI. 23	12/16/15	Campaign Y	Person AA	$2,700
24	10/28/16	Campaign Z	Person AA	$2,700

25 35. Although Person AA shared certain joint bank accounts with 26 defendant ZUBERI, none of those joint accounts financed the above-27 referenced contributions in Person AA's name, Person AA lacked 28 sufficient income to pay for all the contributions made in Person

AA's name, and at the time the October 28, 2016 contribution was made in Person AA's name, Person AA was deceased.

36. From on or about April 1, 2014 through on or about May 17, 2015, defendant ZUBERI reimbursed the following conduits for campaign contributions they had donated at defendant ZUBERI's direction:

Date	Campaign	Contributor	Amount
4/1/14	Campaign E	Person P	$400
4/1/14	Campaign E	Person P	$2,600
5/5/15	Campaign W	Person JJ	$2,700
5/17/15	Campaign W	Person KK	$1,350

37. From on or about September 27, 2013 through on or about April 14, 2016, defendant ZUBERI solicited and received the following reimbursements for campaign contributions, or portions of campaign contributions, defendant ZUBERI had donated in his own name:

Date	Campaign	Source of Funds	Amount
9/27/13	State Campaign AA	Person J	$25,000
9/16/14	Campaign BB	Person LL	$16,000
4/14/16	Campaign CC	Person LL	$35,000

F. Foreign Sources of Campaign Contributions

38. Beginning on or about May 2, 2012 and continuing to on or about February 11, 2016, in response to defendant ZUBERI's solicitations, Person A and Person C caused Company A and Company B to issue the following wire transfers into a foreign bank account in the name of defendant ZUBERI ("the IZ Barclays Dubai account") that either funded or reimbursed contributions to the following political campaigns and a FECA-regulated event ("Event EE"):

Company A to Company B	Date	Company B to Zuberi	Date	Zuberi Acct.	Purpose
		$136,600	5/1/12	Zuberi Barclays Dubai	Campaign B & Campaign DD
		$71,600	6/11/12	Zuberi Barclays Dubai	Campaign DD
		$90,000	9/26/12	Zuberi Barclays Dubai	Campaign DD
$180,000	10/10/13	$180,000	10/1/12	Zuberi Barclays Dubai	Campaign DD
		$100,000	10/21/12	Zuberi Barclays Dubai	Campaign DD
		$100,000	11/12/12	Zuberi Barclays Dubai	Event EE
		$500,000	12/10/12	Zuberi Barclays Dubai	Event EE
$150,000	1/16/13	$150,000	1/14/13	Zuberi Barclays Dubai	Event EE
$100,000	5/2/13	$100,000	2/27/13	Zuberi Barclays Dubai	Event EE photos
		$5,000	4/30/13	Zuberi Barclays Dubai	Campaign D
		$100,200	2/11/16	Avenue Ventures Wells Fargo US	Campaign DD

39. Defendant ZUBERI caused Avenue Ventures to issue invoices that disguised the nature of these foreign conduit campaign contributions, typically by falsely characterizing the transfers as "international consulting."

40. These foreign, conduit contributions were donated in the names of Person A, Person B, Person C, Person D, Person E, Person F, Person I, Person O, Person AA, and defendant ZUBERI.

41. From on or about April 14, 2015 through on or about May 5, 2015, defendant ZUBERI also solicited, and caused the following campaign committees to receive, the following direct contributions from foreign nationals knowing that they were foreign nationals:

Date	Campaign	Contributor	Amount
4/14/15	Campaign W	Person D	$2,700
4/19/15	Campaign W	Person A	$2,700
5/5/15	Campaign W	Person H	$2,700

G. Conversion of Funds Intended for Political Campaigns

42. Contrary to the representations made by defendant ZUBERI to Person A and Person C, defendant ZUBERI directed only a portion of the money wired by Company A and Company B to political campaigns and Event EE and converted the remaining amounts to his personal benefit:

Wire to Zuberi	Date	Intended Campaign	Amounts Donated to Campaign	Amounts Converted
$136,600	5/1/12	Campaign B & Campaign DD	$100,000	$36,600
$71,600	6/11/12	Campaign DD	$0	$71,600
$90,000	9/26/12	Campaign DD	$89,000	$1,000
$180,000	10/1/12	Campaign DD	$40,000	$140,000
$100,000	10/21/12	Campaign DD	$0	$100,000
$100,000	11/12/12	Event EE	$0	$100,000
$500,000	12/10/12	Event EE	$62,500 ¹	$437,500
$150,000	1/14/13	Event EE	$35,000	$115,000
$100,000	2/27/13	Event EE (photos)	$0	$100,000
$100,200	2/11/16	Campaign CC	$100,000	$200
Total			Total Converted by ZUBERI	$1,101,900

43. For example, on or about September 24, 2012, in connection with his solicitation of the $90,000 and $180,000 wire transfers, defendant ZUBERI falsely informed Person C and Person E that he had incurred expenses of $270,000 by making contributions on their behalf. Deliberately using the name of a fictitious employee, defendant ZUBERI sent an email from Robert.Reed@avenueventure.com that falsely stated:

¹ From on or about December 27, 2012 through on or about January 15, 2013, defendant ZUBERI made contributions of $62,500, $62,500, $62,500, $35,000 and $35,000, totaling $257,500, and thereafter obtained refunds from the inauguration committee of $160,000, making the actual expenses incurred only $97,500.

1 Please get me the forms and the wire as soon as possible
2 because there are limited number of seats available. I 3 have used American Express of Imaad to pay for everyone's 4 dues. We need to put the names through vettin [sic]
5 process as well. After the wire is done, please email me
6 so we can move it into the correct sub-account. Thanks Rob

7 44. That same day, defendant ZUBERI falsely informed Person C 8 that defendant ZUBERI was approaching the credit limit on his 9 American Express card because of the $270,000 in contribution 10 expenses incurred, and attached a notice from American Express to 11 purportedly confirm that assertion. In fact, defendant ZUBERI 12 fraudulently prepared the American Express notice to inflate his 13 outstanding balance from approximately $3,943 to $279,998 and his 14 credit limit from $19,000 to $300,000.

15 45. From on or about September 27, 2012 through on or about 16 October 12, 2012, defendant ZUBERI converted approximately $141,000 17 of the $270,000 he received as part of this scheme and used the 18 majority of those funds to (a) pay off a $68,679 mortgage balance on 19 his personal residence, (b) transfer $40,000 to a business operated 20 by his spouse and her close relative, and (c) withdraw $5,000 in cash 21 for himself.

22 46. On or about January 21, 2013, defendant ZUBERI falsely
23 informed Person A, Person C, and Person E that there was a shortfall 24 in their contributions to Event EE and that a hold had been placed on 25 their photographs with the President and Vice-President, writing:

26 [Y]ou guys were supposed to take only two people for the 27 photo. These were $250,000 per person with President and 28 Vice President. I told you by mistake they had put wrong names on the photo line. When the photo (sic) are out they will match it with who went to the photo line versus who paid for them or how many paid. It won't take long for them to figure this out. There were four people instead of two. It will make me look like I am trying to play a fast one with them. I do not want to take chance with my

1 reputation for a couple hundred thousand dollars. It is not 2 worth it for me and I have too much to lose. I told them
3 there was a mistake made and to hold our photo until I tell 4 them which one to release and not release. You need to 5 tell me which two people photo you want released. Let me 6 make it clear, except for [Person C], both [Person E] and 7 [Person A] have not paid enough for this specific photo.

8 47. In fact, as defendant ZUBERI knew, there was no shortfall
9 in contributions to Event EE and, in the weeks ahead, defendant
10 ZUBERI actually received refunds for some contributions defendant 11 ZUBERI had made to Event EE.

12 48. From on or about January 22, 2013 through or about February 13 25, 2013, defendant ZUBERI falsely informed Person C that defendant 14 ZUBERI personally paid $250,000 for the additional photo and that 15 defendant ZUBERI expected Person A to reimburse him for that expense 16 or else he would inform business associates not to work with Person 17 A. Ultimately, defendant ZUBERI informed Person A that he would 18 accept the reduced amount of $100,000 from Person A for the purported 19 reimbursement.

20 H. Income From anti-Bahrain Lobbying Effort

21 49. In or about February 2013, Person J informed defendant 22 ZUBERI that he was engaged in a financial dispute with Person S.
23 According to Person J, Person S won a monetary arbitration award 24 against Person J for services rendered in connection with the 25 development of the Al Areen Palace & Spa ("Al Areen"), a master 26 planned development in southern Bahrain. According to Person J, as a 27 result of this dispute with Person S, the Government of Bahrain had 28 frozen Person J's personal assets and delayed further development of Al Areen, which was causing significant financial harm to Person J.

50. To remedy Person J's financial dispute, defendant ZUBERI proposed to use his connections with current and former high-ranking

1 U.S. Government officials to dissuade the Bahraini government from 2 engaging in conduct antithetical to Person J's financial interests 3 ("the anti-Bahrain lobbying effort").

4 51. Defendant ZUBERI further proposed that he and Person J 5 convey the appearance that Avenue Ventures was investing in Al Areen.
6 By injecting a U.S. "investor" into the project, defendant ZUBERI 7 believed he could convince high-ranking U.S. Government officials to 8 apply political pressure on the Bahrain government into stopping its 9 interference in the Al Areen development because of its adverse 10 financial impact on a U.S. entity. Defendant ZUBERI proposed a 11 circular scheme through which the appearance of a U.S. investment 12 would be created: (a) Person J would invest in a U.S. company; (b)
13 the U.S. company would invest in Avenue Ventures; and (c) Avenue
14 Ventures would then invest in an Al Areen Holding Company ("AHC")
15 that purportedly owned Al Areen.

16 52. From on or about March 3, 2013 through on or about May 28, 17 2013, defendant ZUBERI enlisted the support of a former high-ranking 18 U.S. official to speak with members of the Bahrain government, U.S.
19 State Department officials, and a Member of Congress in furtherance 20 of the anti-Bahrain lobbying efforts.

21 53. From on or about March 12, 2013 through on or about March 22 5, 2014, defendant ZUBERI enlisted the support of a high-ranking U.S.
23 State Department official in Bahrain to visit Al Areen, meet with 24 members of the Bahrain government, and speak with Members of Congress 25 in furtherance of the anti-Bahrain lobbying effort.

26 54. From on or about March 15, 2013 through on or about June 1, 27 2013, defendant ZUBERI discussed with Members of Congress and their 28 staffs how to enlist the support of the U.S. State Department in 1 furtherance of the anti-Bahrain lobbying effort and arranged for 2 these Congresspersons to meet with Bahrain government officials.

3 55. On or about April 29, 2013, defendant ZUBERI staged a 4 public event in Los Angeles, California, at which Person J and other 5 individuals purported to sign a partnership agreement in which Avenue 6 Ventures acquired a 35% stake in AHC in return for its having made a 7 sizable U.S. foreign investment in Al Areen. In fact, no such 8 agreement was executed.

9 56. Defendant ZUBERI solicited Person J for money in return for 10 acting as an unregistered foreign agent of Person J. On or about 11 August 3, 2013, defendant ZUBERI told Person J and others:

12 It has been several months since the Al-Areen press
13 conference. We need to put closure on this by Thursday 14 August 15. We have been asked about this project by [State 15 Department Official] and others including calls from [Bahrain government officials . . .] If it is not moving forward then we will let US State Department know that we are not moving forward with this project. . . .

16 57. On or about August 18, 2013, defendant ZUBERI warned 17 Person J:

18 Next week we need to either get documents signed or we need 19 to have a press release that we agreed not to move forward 20 thereby disengaging. It has been over 5-6 months which is 21 way too long. Tomorrow, if someone challenged this then what document do I have to prove this is a real transaction?

22 58. On or about August 26, 2013, Person J executed a contract 23 with Avenue Ventures on behalf of Company D. Under the terms of the 24 contract, Avenue Ventures would provide consultancy services to 25 further Company D's attempts to enter into business relationships 26 throughout the world on an as-needed basis. In return, Company D 27 would pay Avenue Ventures a retainer of $250,000 per year plus 28

1 additional retainers and success fees as projects were realized, as 2 well as expenses.

3 59. Defendant ZUBERI failed to register under FARA as an agent 4 of Person J, a foreign national, and received income for acting as an 5 unregistered agent of Person J. For example, in or about August 6 2013, Avenue Ventures issued an invoice to Company D seeking $250,000
7 per the "2013 contract." On or about August 29, 2013, Avenue
8 Ventures issued an invoice to Company D for $27,900 for expenses 9 incurred in relation to the anti-Bahrain lobbying effort. On or 10 about September 2013, Company D wired $277,858 to the IZ Barclays
11 Dubai account in payment on those invoices related to defendant 12 ZUBERI's anti-Bahrain lobbying efforts.

13 60. From on or about January 15, 2014 through on or about March 14 5, 2014, defendant ZUBERI prevailed upon Members of Congress to issue 15 official letters to the Foreign Minister of Bahrain in support of the 16 anti-Bahrain lobbying efforts. In order to achieve this goal, 17 defendant ZUBERI falsely informed Members of Congress:

18 [A] major investment by a US company in Bahrain is 19 experiencing significant interference from Bahraini 20 authorities acting on behalf of a member of the royal 21 family. . . . [Avenue Ventures] is seeking support from its 22 government for a cessation of interference in its project 23 in Bahrain.

24 61. In fact, Avenue Ventures had not invested any money or 25 acquired any stake in either AHC or Al Areen and the true purpose of 26 the lobbying efforts was to financially benefit Person J.

27 62. From on or about January 15, 2014 through on or about March 28 5, 2014, in response to the lobbying efforts of defendant ZUBERI on behalf of Person J, twelve Members of Congress issued official letters to the Foreign Minister of Bahrain citing the purported

"harassment" of "U.S. investors" and asking that his government stop its "interference."

I. Conversion of Funds/Income Received From U.S. Cares Investors

63. From on or about August 12, 2013 through on or about January 27, 2014, defendant ZUBERI solicited Person J, Person K, Person L, Person M, and Person N to invest in U.S. Cares and caused Avenue Ventures to enter into an operating agreement with their respective companies.

64. The operating agreement that defined the investment assigned the following ownership percentages in the venture: Avenue Ventures (28.5%), Company D (20%), Company F (9.5%), Company E (2%), Company G (20%), and Company H (20%). The agreement required the establishment of a capital account with respect to each member's capital contributions.

65. From on or about September 28, 2013 through on or about March 11, 2014, the U.S. Cares investors wired approximately $7,000,000 into the IZ Barclays Dubai account, an individual Emirates Bank account in the name of defendant ZUBERI located in Dubai ("the IZ Emirates Dubai account"), and a Bank of America account in the United States held jointly in the name of defendant ZUBERI and his spouse ("the IZ/WR BofA account").

66. Capital investments from Person N and his business, Company H, and Person M's business, Company G, were wired to defendant ZUBERI as follows:

Transfer Date	Transfer Amount	Payor	Zuberi Account
12/10/2013	$500,000	Person N	IZ/WR BofA US
12/12/2013	$490,070	Person N	IZ Emirates Dubai
12/22/2013	$245,031	Person N	IZ Emirates Dubai
12/24/2013	$500,000	Company H	IZ/WR BofA US
1/27/2014	$2,000,000	Company G	IZ Emirates Dubai

1 67. Defendant ZUBERI did not transfer any of the funds received 2 from U.S. Cares investors into a U.S. Cares capital account as 3 required by the operating agreement. Instead, from on or about 4 December 5, 2013 through on or about October 12, 2015, defendant 5 ZUBERI used over 90% of the investor funds to (a) purchase real 6 estate in the names of various limited liability companies owned 7 entirely by himself and his spouse ("IZ/WR Real Property LLCs"), (b)
8 pay down mortgages owed by IZ/WR Real Property LLCs, (c) remodel 9 property owned by IZ/WR Real Property LLCs, (d) invest in brokerage 10 accounts in the names of defendant ZUBERI and his spouse, (e) donate 11 $250,000 to a non-profit organization established by a former high-12 ranking elected official, and (f) pay down personal credit card debt, 13 most of which was incurred to pay campaign contributions and travel, 14 meal, entertainment, and personal expenses.

15 68. Out of approximately $7,000,000 wired to defendant ZUBERI 16 by U.S. Cares investors, less than $250,000 was spent in furtherance 17 of defendant ZUBERI's advertised business purpose. On or about 18 October 7, 2013 and on or about December 9, 2013, defendant ZUBERI 19 issued two $90,000 checks to a law firm in connection with the 20 creation of U.S. Cares and preparing a license application to OFAC.
21 From in or about October 2013 through in or about February 2016, 22 defendant ZUBERI paid another attorney approximately $20,000 in 23 connection with the U.S. Cares license application.

24 69. In or about January 2016, United States sanctions against 25 Iran were lifted, which impacted OFAC regulations pertaining to U.S.
26 Cares.

27 70. On or about February 22, 2016, OFAC responded to U.S. Cares 28 license application, stating that ". . . the Applicant's proposed

1 transactions related to the exportation and reexportation of the 2 goods as described in the application appear to be generally 3 authorized[.]”

4 71. After the OFAC response, defendant ZUBERI took no further 5 action with respect to the license application, nor did he use any of 6 the converted funds to engage in the planned distribution of 7 humanitarian supplies to Iran.

8 J. Conversion of Funds/Income Received From Sri Lankan Government

9 72. From on or about November 28, 2013 through on or about 10 March 5, 2014, defendant ZUBERI met with high-ranking officials of 11 the Government of Sri Lanka and negotiated an agreement whereby 12 Avenue Ventures, or a special-purpose company created by Avenue 13 Ventures, would engage in lobbying and public relations efforts to 14 rehabilitate Sri Lanka's image in the United States. This proposed 15 lobbying and public relations effort focused on modifying United 16 States policies, particularly through the issuance of Congressional 17 resolutions, and improving public perception relating to Sri Lanka's 18 alleged persecution of its minority Tamil population.

19 73. On or about March 5, 2014, defendant ZUBERI pledged to 20 expend $2,250,000 per quarter in support of this effort with 21 $1,500,000 per quarter for lobbying expenses, $500,000 per quarter 22 for legal expenses, and $250,000 per quarter for media buys.
23 Defendant ZUBERI told Sri Lankan officials that the effort would 24 include introducing Sri Lankan officials to executive branch 25 administration officials, Senators, and Congresspersons, and 26 recruiting Sri Lankan expatriates to engage in political organizing 27 in the United States.
28

1 74. On or about April 26, 2014, WR entered into a contract, 2 effective May 1, 2014, with the Central Bank of Sri Lanka ("the Sri 3 Lanka-WR contract"). The Sri Lanka-WR contract described WR's 4 services as "(i) strategic advice related to commercial and public 5 policy considerations related to the US and other parties;" and (ii) 6 "identification of consultants or other legal or non-legal advisors
7 to [Sri Lanka] and the Central Bank as may effectuate Sri Lanka's 8 commercial and diplomatic objectives." In return, the Sri Lanka-WR 9 contract required the payment of $8,500,000 in accordance with the 10 following schedule: $3,500,000 on May 1, 2014, and five payments of 11 $1,000,000 per month from June through October 2014.

12 75. On or about May 9, 2014, at defendant ZUBERI's request, the 13 Central Bank of Sri Lanka wired $3,500,000 to the IZ/WR BofA account.

14 76. In or about May 2014, defendant ZUBERI transferred 15 $1,600,000 of the Sri Lankan money into his personal brokerage 16 accounts, $1,500,000 to escrow accounts for the purchase of real 17 property in the name of an IZ/WR Real Property LLC, $300,000 to pay 18 debt on personal credit card accounts, and most of the remaining 19 $100,000 into bank accounts held by IZ/WR Real Property LLCs ("IZ/WR 20 Real Property LLC accounts").

21 77. On or about June 18, 2014, at defendant ZUBERI's request, 22 the Central Bank of Sri Lanka wired $1,000,000 to the IZ/WR BofA 23 account.

24 78. In or about June 2014, defendant ZUBERI transferred 25 approximately $650,000 of Sri Lanka money into his brokerage accounts
26 and almost $200,000 of Sri Lanka money into IZ/WR Real Property LLC 27 accounts.
28

79. In or about July 2014, Sri Lankan officials insisted that the payments in connection with the Sri Lanka-WR contract be disbursed to the contracting party, WR, rather than to defendant ZUBERI's personal bank account. In addition, Sri Lankan officials requested receipts from WR with respect to the wire transfers already made.

80. On or about July 9 and 10, 2014, defendant ZUBERI directed Person P to issue fraudulent receipts on behalf of WR for the $3,500,000 and $1,000,000 wire transfers, despite the funds having been received into defendant ZUBERI's personal bank account and spent for defendant ZUBERI's personal benefit.

81. On or about July 18, 2014, the Central Bank of Sri Lanka wired $1,000,000 into a WR bank account.

82. From in or about July 2014 through in or about September 2014, defendant ZUBERI directed Person P to transfer over $500,000 of Sri Lankan money from WR to corporate entities controlled by defendant ZUBERI and his spouse, including Avenue Capital Group, LLC ("ACG"), ISZ 9 LLC ("ISZ"), Fountain, LLC ("Fountain"), and Clary LLC ("Clary"). Defendant ZUBERI then transferred most of the Sri Lankan money into the IZ/WR BofA account, which were then used for defendant ZUBERI's personal benefit, including brokerage account investments, real estate investments, and to pay debt on his personal credit cards. The transactions are summarized below:

1 st Transfer	2 nd Transfer	3 rd Transfer	Beneficiary

16 83. On or about September 10, 2014, the Central Bank of Sri 17 Lanka wired $1,000,000 into a WR bank account.

18 84. From in or about September 2014 through in or about October 19 2014, defendant ZUBERI directed Person P to transfer approximately 20 $725,000 of Sri Lankan money from WR to corporate entities controlled 21 by defendant ZUBERI, including ACG and Avenue Investment Services, 22 LLC ("AIS"). Defendant ZUBERI then transferred most of the funds 23 into the IZ/WR BofA account, which were then used for defendant
24 ZUBERI's personal benefit, including brokerage account investments 25 and to pay debt on his personal credit cards. The transactions are 26 summarized below:
27
28

1st Transfer	2nd Transfer	3rd Transfer	Beneficiary
$475,000 to ACG (2 cks)	$390,000 to IZ/WR BofA	$36,674 to American Express	IZ/WR

85. Out of the $6,500,000 wired from Sri Lanka pursuant to the Sri Lanka-WR contract, defendant ZUBERI directed over $5,650,000 to the benefit of defendant ZUBERI and his spouse.

86. Out of the $6,500,000 wired from Sri Lanka pursuant to the Sri Lanka-WR contract, less than $850,000 was paid to lobbyists, public relations firms, law firms, and other subcontractors identified by defendant ZUBERI and retained by BGS.

87. At defendant ZUBERI's direction, Person P failed to pay certain invoices issued by these subcontractors. Defendant ZUBERI

1 falsely represented to these unpaid subcontractors that Sri Lanka had 2 provided insufficient funds to make payment and that BGS and Person P 3 were in possession of funds received from Sri Lanka when, in fact,
4 defendant ZUBERI had directed Person P to transfer the Sri Lankan 5 funds to benefit defendant ZUBERI personally.

6 K. Income Received in 2015

7 88. On or about March 27, 2015, Company I, a Ukrainian foreign 8 entity, wired $1,000,000 to the IZ/WR BofA account as payment on an 9 invoice for consulting services issued by defendant ZUBERI.

10 89. Defendant ZUBERI used the majority of the Company I funds
11 for his personal benefit as follows: $650,000 to defendant ZUBERI's 12 personal brokerage accounts, $174,000 to pay debt on his personal 13 credit card, $39,500 to purchase a BMW automobile, and $22,408 to pay 14 taxes he owed to the California Franchise Tax Board.

15 90. On or about August 4, 2015, Person J wired $1,000,000 to an 16 ACG bank account for "Consultancy Fees from Al-Areen project."

17 91. On or about August 5, 2015, defendant ZUBERI used the 18 majority of the funds received from Person J to issue a $770,000
19 check that he deposited into the IZ/RW BofA account. These funds 20 were combined with other funds to wire $3,183,800 to an escrow 21 company in connection with the purchase of a property in the name of 22 an IZ/WR Real Property LLC.

23 92. On or about October 26, 2015, Company C wired $999,980 to 24 an ACG bank account for an "Engagement Fee." The fee constituted a 25 retainer for Avenue Ventures to provide consultancy services to 26 assist Company C to engage in business relationships with government 27 entities and private companies throughout the world on an as-needed 28 basis.

1 93. On or about October 28, 2015, defendant ZUBERI's spouse
2 used the majority of the funds received from Company D to purchase a 3 $626,000 cashier's check payable to an escrow company in connection
4 with the purchase of a property in the name of an IZ/WR Real Property 5 LLC.

6 L. Unreported Income

7 94. Defendant ZUBERI had a legal obligation to file an U.S.
8 Individual Income Tax Return, IRS Form 1040 ("Form 1040") for the 9 2012 calendar year because, at a minimum, defendant ZUBERI received 10 approximately $886,700 from Company B for campaign contributions that 11 defendant ZUBERI instead converted to his own benefit.

12 Notwithstanding this obligation, defendant ZUBERI did not file a Form 13 1040 reporting income he received during the 2012 calendar year.

14 95. On or about April 15, 2014, defendant ZUBERI and his spouse
15 caused the electronic filing of a Form 1040 for the 2013 calendar
16 year. Defendant ZUBERI falsely reported on line 22 of that tax
17 return a total income of $182,211. This amount was understated 18 because, at a minimum, the Form 1040 failed to account for (a) 19 approximately $215,000 defendant ZUBERI received from Company B for 20 contributions to Event EE that defendant ZUBERI instead converted to 21 his own benefit and (b) approximately $2,223,000 defendant ZUBERI 22 converted from U.S. Cares investors during the 2013 calendar year.

23 96. On or about April 15, 2015, defendant ZUBERI and his spouse
24 caused the electronic filing of a Form 1040 for the 2014 calendar
25 year. Defendant ZUBERI falsely reported on line 22 of that tax
26 return a total income of $558,233. This amount was understated
27 because, at a minimum, the return failed to account for (a) 28 approximately $5,650,000 defendant ZUBERI received either directly

1 from Sri Lanka or indirectly from Sri Lanka through WR in connection
2 with the Sri Lanka-WR contract and which defendant ZUBERI expended 3 for his own personal benefit and (b) approximately $2,200,000
4 defendant ZUBERI converted from U.S. Cares investors during the 2014 5 calendar year.

6 97. On or about October 14, 2016, defendant ZUBERI and his 7 spouse caused the electronic filing of a Form 1040 for the 2015 8 calendar year. Defendant ZUBERI falsely reported on line 22 of that 9 tax return a total income of $1,959,992. This tax amount was 10 understated because the return failed to account for (a) $1,000,000 11 received from Company I by ACH, which should have been accounted for 12 on defendant ZUBERI's Form 1040 as business income, and (b)
13 approximately $1,000,000 defendant ZUBERI converted from U.S. Cares 14 investors during the 2015 calendar year.

15 M. Defendant Zuberi's Lobbying and Public Relation Activities
16 Conducted at the Direction and Control of the Sri Lankan 17 Government

18 98. From in or about December 2013 through in or about October 19 2014, defendant ZUBERI directed and personally engaged in lobbying 20 and public relations activities targeting United States elected 21 officials and their staff, at the direction and control of Sri Lanka.
22 Defendant ZUBERI (a) solicited, on behalf of Sri Lanka, Members of 23 Congress to accept all-expenses-paid trips to Sri Lanka, (b) authored 24 emails and wrote proposals for Sri Lanka setting forth the strategy 25 of the influence campaign, (c) interviewed, recommended, and 26 negotiated subcontracts with lobbyists for Sri Lanka, (d) organized 27 conference calls with lobbyists to set forth their responsibilities, 28 (e) coordinated a series of meetings in Washington, D.C. between Sri

1 Lankan officials and United States Senators, Congresspersons, and 2 their staff, (f) personally introduced members of a Sri Lanka
3 delegation to Members of Congress, and (g) participated in meetings 4 with United States Government officials at which the goals of the Sri 5 Lanka delegation were discussed.

6 99. From on or about April 26, 2014 through on or about July 7 14, 2014, defendant ZUBERI directed Person P to sign the Sri Lanka-WR 8 contract, create BGS and WR, and open bank accounts for those 9 companies to insulate and conceal defendant ZUBERI's control of the 10 Sri Lanka lobbying and public relations effort, and defendant
11 ZUBERI's personal receipt of money from Sri Lanka. In reality, BGS
12 and WR acted as alter egos of defendant ZUBERI and all efforts 13 undertaken by those entities were, in fact, directed by defendant 14 ZUBERI.

15 100. Beginning on or about June 2, 2014, defendant ZUBERI
16 instructed Person P to sign contracts on behalf of BGS in which it 17 retained various lobbyists to support the Sri Lanka-WR contract.
18 Defendant ZUBERI instructed Person P when to pay lobbyists and other 19 subcontractors on behalf of BGS and WR. Defendant ZUBERI instructed 20 Person P not to pay certain lobbyists, despite their rendering of 21 services.

22 N. FARA Violations Pertaining to Sri Lanka

23 101. From in or about December 2013 through in or about October 24 2014, defendant ZUBERI was the agent of Sri Lanka, and therefore had 25 personal registration obligations under FARA.

26 102. Defendant ZUBERI failed to register with the Department of 27 Justice as a foreign agent of Sri Lanka prior to acting on Sri 28 Lanka's behalf.

1 103. In an effort to conceal his conduct at the direction and 2 control of Sri Lanka, defendant ZUBERI directed Person P to register
3 BGS, rather than defendant ZUBERI himself. On or about June 2, 2014, 4 Person P filed a FARA registration statement for BGS as an agent of 5 Sri Lanka. On or about August 14, 2014, BGS filed a supplemental 6 registration statement. In each of these 2014 registration 7 statements, BGS failed to report any of the money it received from 8 Sri Lanka, the money disbursed to companies under defendant ZUBERI's 9 control, or the money disbursed to various subcontractors that had 10 engaged in the Sri Lanka lobbying and public relations effort.

11 104. On or about June 2, 2014, Person P filed a "short-form" 12 FARA registration statement, identifying himself as a director of 13 BGS.

14 105. On or about June 2, 2014, at defendant ZUBERI's direction, 15 Person Q filed a short-form FARA registration statement, identifying 16 himself as a director of BGS.

17 106. On or about August 14, 2014, defendant ZUBERI filed a 18 short-form FARA registration statement, claiming that BGS contracted 19 with him to provide consulting work on behalf of Sri Lanka.

20 107. Defendant ZUBERI's short-form statement contained material 21 false statements and omitted material facts. These included, but 22 were not limited to, that defendant ZUBERI willfully and falsely 23 claimed that (a) BGS retained him as a consultant when, in fact, he 24 orchestrated all of BGS's activities, (b) he engaged in no political 25 activity on behalf of Sri Lanka, when, in fact, he lobbied the United 26 States Congress on behalf of Sri Lanka, (c) he merely received a 27 salary from BGS "[n]ot based solely on services rendered to the 28 foreign principal," when, in fact, he received not a salary from BGS,

1 but rather over $5,650,000 of Sri Lanka funds, and (d) he had made no
2 political contributions on his own behalf during the period beginning
3 60 days prior to the date of his obligation to register to the time 4 of the filing of the short-form FARA registration statement, when, in 5 fact, defendant ZUBERI made contributions to dozens of election
6 campaigns during this timeframe. In addition, in that short-form 7 statement, defendant ZUBERI did not disclose the $3,500,000 and 8 $1,000,000 wire transfers he had received into the IZ/WR BofA account 9 in May and June 2014, or the $500,000 in Sri Lanka funds he had 10 converted from WR to his own benefit in July 2014.

11 108. Notwithstanding WR's contract with Sri Lanka, WR did not 12 register under FARA at any time during the 2014 calendar year.

13 109. The net result of defendant ZUBERI's failure to register 14 under FARA and the 2014 FARA filings containing material false 15 statements and material omissions was that the American public was 16 unaware of millions of dollars routed by Sri Lanka to defendant 17 ZUBERI and the scope of his concerted and foreign-funded efforts to 18 transform United States foreign policy and public opinion to the 19 benefit of that foreign government.

20 110. In or about late July 2015, defendant ZUBERI was contacted 21 by a reporter for an online magazine, who ultimately published an 22 article reporting that defendant ZUBERI had received millions of 23 dollars from the former Government of Sri Lanka, failed to make 24 requisite FARA disclosures, and was the subject of an investigation 25 by the U.S. Department of Justice in Washington, D.C.

26 111. After his contact with the reporter, but prior to the 27 publication of the article, defendant ZUBERI directed Person P to 28 file FARA registration material prepared by an attorney retained by

1 defendant ZUBERI. On or about August 11, 2015, Person P issued a 2 letter to NSD to "disclose voluntarily a relationship between FARA 3 registrant [BGS and WR], which was not on BGS's FARA registration." 4 The letter falsely asserted that:

5 [WR] is a US business consulting entity which performed 6 services for the Government of Sri Lanka [] including 7 consulting, research, and related services. [WR] did not 8 perform any lobbying services. [WR] appointed BGS to help 9 identify and engage with consultants who could advance [Sri 10 Lanka] public policy interests in the US. There was no written contract or specific correspondence to disclose on Exhibit B to BGS' Registration Statement. Additionally, there was no set fee for these services, and there was no specific term for these activities. The activity has ended and BGS has since filed its termination statement.

11 112. On or about September 9, 2015, over 20 months after having 12 begun working at the direction and control of Sri Lanka, defendant 13 ZUBERI filed a FARA registration statement, including an attached 14 supplemental statement. In the filing, defendant ZUBERI disclosed 15 his receipt of $3,500,000 on May 9, 2014, and $1,000,000 on June 18, 16 2014, for "business consulting service, including non-specified 17 amount for public affairs." Defendant ZUBERI also disclosed the Sri 18 Lanka-WR contract, defendant ZUBERI's personal campaign contributions 19 during the relevant timeframe, and disbursements to various lobbyists 20 and other subcontractors.

21 113. Defendant ZUBERI's September 2015 FARA filing nevertheless 22 contained material false statements and omitted material facts.
23 These included, but were not limited to, that defendant ZUBERI 24 willfully and falsely claimed that he provided no services to Sri 25 Lanka after September 2014. In fact, on October 15, 2014, defendant 26 ZUBERI reported to Sri Lanka officials a pledge from a Member of 27 Congress to visit Sri Lanka in January 2015. In addition, on 28 December 4, 2014, defendant ZUBERI promised a Sri Lanka official that

1 he would "extend[] the current contract up to March 2015 at no cost
2 to [Sri Lanka]."

3 114. Defendant ZUBERI's September 2015 FARA filing was 4 accompanied by a letter from his attorney that falsely described his 5 involvement as merely providing business consulting services to Sri 6 Lanka and funding to BGS for public affairs consulting purposes. The 7 letter falsely stated that FARA registration was not required because 8 defendant ZUBERI engaged in non-political work in furtherance of 9 commerce, the Sri Lanka-WR contract was only a business consulting 10 contract that did not call for lobbying by defendant ZUBERI or WR, 11 and defendant ZUBERI himself did not conduct or plan to conduct any 12 lobbying or public relations work for Sri Lanka. In fact, defendant 13 ZUBERI was the primary organizer of paid political efforts to mold 14 the opinion of Members of Congress and executive branch 15 administration officials, at the direction and control of Sri Lanka.

16 115. On or about September 15, 2015, more than 16 months after 17 WR contracted with Sri Lanka, WR filed its initial FARA registration 18 statement and associated forms. The filing disclosed the two 19 $1,000,000 wire transfers WR received from Sri Lanka in July 2014 and 20 September 2014. The filing falsely declared that most of WR's 21 activities were not reportable pursuant to FARA because only a 22 portion of the money directed to BGS was for public affairs 23 consulting that had been previously disclosed by registered entities.

24 116. On or about September 15, 2015, BGS filed supplemental FARA 25 registration statements. The BGS filing reported that BGS had 26 engaged in "general consultative services related to some of foreign 27 principal's work on government affairs" and finally reported the 28

1 money received from defendant ZUBERI and WR as well as disbursements 2 to various lobbyists and other subcontractors.

3 117. These Introductory Allegations are incorporated into each 4 count of the Information.

COUNT ONE

[22 U.S.C. §§ 612, 618(a)(2)]

On or about August 14, 2014 and September 9, 2015, in Los Angeles County, within the Central District of California, defendant IMAAD SHAH ZUBERI knowingly and willfully made and caused to be made false statements of material fact, willfully omitted material facts required to be stated therein, and willfully omitted material facts necessary to make the statements therein and the copies of documents furnished therewith not misleading, in documents filed with and furnished to the Attorney General under the provisions of the Foreign Agent Registration Act. Specifically:

In box 11 of the short-form registration statement filed on or about August 14, 2014, defendant ZUBERI falsely stated that he was a "Consultant to Beltway Government Strategies." In fact, as defendant ZUBERI knew at time he made the statement, he created and controlled Beltway Government Strategies.

In box 12 of the short-form registration statement filed on or about August 14, 2014, defendant ZUBERI falsely stated that his services to the Government of Sri Lanka did not include political activity, as defined by FARA. In fact, as defendant ZUBERI knew at the time he made the statement, ZUBERI's services to the Government of Sri Lanka included an extensive amount of political activity.

In box 14 of the short-form registration statement filed on or about August 14, 2014, in response to the question, "What compensation or thing of value have you received to date or will you receive for the above services?", defendant ZUBERI falsely stated that he received a salary from BGS "[n]ot based solely on services rendered to the foreign principal" and intentionally omitted that he

1 received $3,500,000 in May 2014 and $1,000,000 in June 2014 solely 2 based on lobbying services rendered to Sri Lanka.

3 In box 15 of the short-form registration statement filed on or 4 about August 14, 2014, defendant ZUBERI stated that he had made no
5 political contributions on his own behalf during the period beginning 6 60 days prior to the date of his obligation to register to the time 7 of the filing of the short-form FARA registration statement. In 8 fact, as defendant ZUBERI knew at the time he made the statement, he 9 had contributed to dozens of election campaigns during this 10 timeframe.

11 In box 7 of the supplemental statement filed on or about 12 September 9, 2015, defendant ZUBERI listed "09/30/2014" as the date 13 when his connection with the Government of Sri Lanka terminated.
14 Similarly, in box 14(a) of the supplemental statement filed on or 15 about September 9, 2015, defendant ZUBERI stated that his 16 relationship with the Government of Sri Lanka "ended in September 17 2014." In fact, as defendant ZUBERI knew at the time he made these 18 statements, he continued to act as an agent for the Government of Sri 19 Lanka after September 30, 2014.

COUNT TWO

[26 U.S.C. § 7201]

From on or about May 9, 2014, to on or about April 15, 2015, in Los Angeles County, within the Central District of California, defendant IMAAD SHAH ZUBERI, a resident of El Monte, California, willfully attempted to evade and defeat the assessment and payment of the income tax due and owing by him and his spouse to the United States of America for the calendar year 2014, by committing the following affirmative acts, among others:

a. Diverting over $5,650,000 received for the purposes of the Sri Lanka-WR contract to the benefit of defendant ZUBERI and his spouse; and

b. Causing to be filed with the Director, Internal Revenue Service Center, at Fresno, California, a false and fraudulent joint U.S. Individual Income Tax Return, Form 1040 that stated the joint total income of defendant ZUBERI and his spouse for the calendar year was $558,233 and that the amount of tax due and owing thereon was $52,069. In fact, as defendant ZUBERI then knew, their joint total income for the calendar year 2014 was in excess of $5,650,000, and, upon the additional taxable income, an additional tax was due and owing to the United States of America.

COUNT THREE

[52 U.S.C. §§ 30116, 30118, 30121, 30122, 30109(d)(1)]

During the calendar year 2015, in Los Angeles County, within the Central District of California, defendant IMAAD SHAH ZUBERI knowingly and willfully violated the Federal Election Campaign Act, in amounts aggregating at least $25,000 during that calendar year, by (a) making contributions in the names of other individuals, (b) reimbursing contributions made by other individuals, (c) receiving reimbursements from other individuals for contributions he made, (d) soliciting contributions made by foreign nationals, and (e) making contributions with money received from, or reimbursed by, foreign nationals and foreign entities.
